Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

During Holy Week I dusted off an old book on my shelf. "Seeing through Our Tears" by Daniel Bagby. It's a book about God's grace, God's mercy and God's promise – powerful things during Holy Week and Easter.

In one of the chapters Pastor Bagby talks about struggling to feel forgiveness, something that many of us wrestle with. In the chapter the author states, "Sometimes, we have trouble believing that God can forgive us." He spends the rest of the section breaking that down for his readers. He states, "The scriptural truth is that we have asked the wrong question. It is not "What can't God forgive?" but "Where have I placed limits on God's grace in my life? The boundaries of forgiveness are not drawn by God, but by us – and we can remove them." Pastor Bagby goes on to say that we may need to ask ourselves if it's really God's forgiveness we are anxious over, or forgiveness of others.

Bagby reminds his readers that there are times when people will deliberately withhold grace for many reasons and goes on to remind about Jesus telling those who are without sin to cast the first stone in John 7. He adds, "We may need to accept God's grace, even when others chose not to forgive... If we feel unforgiven, we need to be reminded that God DOES forgive us and releases us to new life daily as he has done since Creation. We read about this grace in Psalm 103: The Lord is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in love. <sup>9</sup>He will not always accuse, nor will he harbor his anger forever; <sup>10</sup>he does not treat us as our sins deserve or repay us according to our iniquities. <sup>11</sup>For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his love for those who fear him; <sup>12</sup>as far as the east is from the west, so far has he removed our transgressions from us."

Pastor Bagby reminds us of God's promises of grace – he continues, "Often we say that God cannot forgive us when the problem is we cannot forgive ourselves." Part of that struggle is we think we know ourselves better than God, we think we know better than God. Bagby encourages us to remember that God has responded with grace to "unstable and regularly inconsistent" set of disciples forever. Abraham, Jacob, Moses, David, the apostles were all imperfect people shown the amazing grace of God. "When we resist forgiveness we may be unintentionally challenging God by suggesting that we understand the nature of our sin better than God."

I'd like to share one last paragraph from Pastor Bagby's book – indeed much of this month's letter is directly from this reading that has had such an impact on me these past few days. "Christ reminds us that he knows his sheep and that he loves even those that who betray him. The power of Christ's forgiveness is felt both at table, where his best friends confess they had considered betraying him (Mark 14) and on the cross when he asks the Father to forgive his crucifiers because they didn't understand what they were doing (Luke 23)... We need to remember Christ sought to forgive Peter and release him after his denial. The fact that Judas AND Peter were both guilty of the same offense can not be lost. Judas couldn't accept forgiveness or forgive himself. Peter struggle through remorse to grace and became the rock on which Christ's Church was built."

May you walk in grace

In the Kitchen with Service Guild...

Team 4 is our next team to be profiled. The members of this team are: Martha Cooper (semi-retired after too many years of service to count), Mary and Jim Ehlinger (we'll talk about Jim later), Jane Parker, Larry and Kris Heilman, Jean Gaskill and Stacy Barker. Stacy and Jim are the "greenies" this year. The team members are training them.

This is the only team in Service Guild to have two menus. September to April their menu includes barbeque pork steak, baked herb potatoes, and steamed California vegetables. Their summer menu came after a request from Rotary for a lighter menu. This includes spinach and sun-baked tomato wraps, three-bean salad and potato salad.

Turning the oven off way too soon and forgetting to add a fairly important ingredient are among their most serious mistakes. One Monday they were sent the ham loaf meat but Martha saved the day!

The same question has been asked to all the teams and have gotten the same answers. "Why do you work for Service Guild?" Friendship, service and companionship. Well, my team was much more ??? Well, hold on! This is what team 4 said: "My mom said I had to," or "It is just expected." and "for the good of the cause" and last but not least - "No was not the right answer!"

As you see Team 4 is fearless.

Service Guild President
Jean Gaskill

THRIVENT - APRIL 2018

Is it really almost Easter? Some of our days are warmer now, but winter's cold winds have stayed longer this year, it seems. The weather forecasts have been up and down for several weeks now. And I'll admit my moods have also been up and down. Sometimes I don't mind the cold winds because I am happy to snuggle under a warm blanket and read my favorite mystery book. But on other days I have places to go and things I need to get done, and on those frosty mornings, scraping frost and snow from car windows isn't my favorite thing to do.

Thank you to everyone who attended "A Taste of Italy" and helped our youth group earn more money for their trip to Houston this summer. A big round of applause for all the adults and youth who worked to prepare the delicious food, turned the dining hall into an Italian cafe and did all the work to put this together and make it a wonderful success.

As we are moving into Spring and watching as we see more new growth coming to the trees and the flower bulbs that are sprouting, please remember to let your prayer time grow as well. Say a prayer each day for someone you love, your family, and maybe a new friend. You don't have to know their name, you may pray "the smiling teller at the bank today"—God knows who that is.

What a wonderful way to enjoy spreading more good feelings this time of the year.

Thank you for your continued support.

Cathy Martin
Head Thrivent Congregational Coordinator

Prayer list information

Next time you're about to submit a request for inclusion on the prayer list please ask the following questions. Did that person give permission to the office? Does that person wish the information to be shared publicly? If the answer to either question is "NO" your prayer request violates the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPPA).

If we do not have personal permission for inclusion we will only publish first names. These are the guidelines from the ELCA provided at last Fall's Synod Conference meetings.

Also, please be aware that the pastor and church office are not automatically notified of your admission to a hospital, due to the HIPPA laws. If your stay is a planned one please contact the church office or have a relative contact us.

In some cases, even if you tell the hospital it is all right to contact us, it may not occur. You personally contacting the church office should be the primary way the message of your hospitalization reaches the pastor. Thanks for your help in this matter.

Please continue to raise our nation, its leaders, and our personnel "in harm's way" in your prayers. Let us not forget to pray for them and to thank God for His blessings. We, as Christians, should also witness God's love by praying for our enemies in all this. Keep in mind Christ died and was raised from the dead for them also and we were called in our Baptism to witness to the entire world. We particularly commend the following who are members of our congregation:

Major Tamara Funari,
Daughter of Ron and Connie Allgire
1st Sgt. Kerry Schnitz,
Son of Larry Burroughs

We also remember in prayer those relatives of members.

St. Sgt. Mark Beck,
Son-in-law of Wayne Davis
Buck Sgt. Joshua T Bell, USAF,
Nephew of Al and Laurie Moll
SFC E7 James Fluechtling,
Grandson of Mary Frost
USAF Jason Griffith,
Grandson of June Burke
USM 2nd Lt. Dustin Hughes,
Grandson of Barb Bibler
